FRAUD NOTICE

Any person who (1) dishonestly files an application for insurance or a claim under a policy containing information he knows to be untrue or misleading; or who (2) in making an application for insurance or claim under a policy dishonestly fails to disclose information which has been asked for, may commit fraud. We will investigate any claims or applications for insurance which we have grounds to believe may be fraudulent. Committing fraud may result in your policy being terminated and any claims you make under not being paid. We may, for the purposes of the detection and prevention of fraud, share information relating to suspected fraud with other insurance companies and/or with law enforcement authorities.
